Fred Haymes And Sister Are Charged With Assault, Intent To Kill

John Looker has made affidavit in Squire Harer's court against Fred Haymes, and Haymes' sister, Mrs. Blanche Powers, charging them with assault and battery and intent to wound and kill. The assault occurred in September and it is said that Looker, who has been disabled ever since, was not able to make the affidavit and earlier.

Looker resides in part of the house occupied by the Haymes' on East Water street. The trouble, it is reported, was over the disposition of some pears which grew on a tree in the yard. The hearing will be at 10 a. m. Tuesday.

YOU WANT TO FACE THIS?

The fate of the improvident is always tragic—and in nearly every case it is due to the failure to form the habit of thrift.

"Easy come—easy go!" That has meant the wreck of lives, the condemnation of wife and children to poverty.

There's an easy way to prevent—not so easy to overcome. Form habits of real thrift.

Don't you want to see these habits in all your acquaintance?

THEN VOTE YOUR SENTIMENTS

The schools of Ohio are offering you an opportunity to encourage thrift—to make the success of the thrift party. A million school pupils are working hard, under the leadership of 400,000 teachers, to lay emphasis upon that habit.

They are using War Savings Stamps—the World's Best Investment—as the medium. All you can do to help is too little. Help drive home this lesson; help establish the habit; help yourself by this safe investment. Create the sentiment that saving is safety by saving yourself.

A hundred dollar Treasury Saving Certificate, bought through a pupil, may start a lifetime of wise spending, intelligent saving and safe investment.

Note—The school in each school unit securing the greatest number of votes per pupil during election will be awarded a beautiful bronze tablet.

HERE is a copy of the special ballot to be used by the school children of Ohio in electioneering for the Thrift party. Votes can be secured only through the purchase of War Savings Stamps. The school in each community securing the most votes will be awarded a handsome bronze tablet in addition to other prizes.

The special election is being held by the Ohio War Savings Committee in the interest of the savings movement. It marks the final 1919 War Savings drive in the public schools, and the War Savings Committee hopes that at least several million dollars' worth of War Stamps will be sold.

School children will be given the ballots by their teachers. They, in turn, will ask their parents and friends to pledge themselves to buy War Stamps. The pledges will be turned over to the postmaster in each community, who will deliver the stamps.

The election will run from Oct. 27 until Nov. 22. Every school in Ohio is expected to take an active part.

The platform of the Thrift party calls for "wise spending, intelligent saving and safe investment," while the Thrifless party platform would "satisfy present desires at the expense of future needs."

Incidentally, the election will begin on Roosevelt Memorial Day, and quite significant is this remark of the late ex-president: "Bring your children up not so they will shirk difficulties, but so that they will overcome them; not so that they will try to have a soft time of selfish ease, but so that they will have the greatest joy that comes to mankind—the satisfaction of knowing, whenever the end may come, that they have led worthy lives."

The Thrift election is calculated to teach children the wisdom of saving, and, incidentally, sell several million dollars' worth of War Savings Stamps.
